

Do Not Change the Law. If any changes are to be made in the do not call list it should be to strengthen it. The number of solicitations and scams received before the do not call list took effect was incredible. Since then I no longer dread answering the phone.